EARLY YEARS & PRIMARY

Education led workshops are suitable for all key stages, early years and reception teachers and are delivered by enthusiastic Artist Educators. Available Tuesdays, Wednesdays & Fridays, AM or PM. £2 per pupil half-day; £5 per pupil full-day workshop. Choose a workshop or mix and match...

TALK, EXPLORE & BE CURIOUS WORKSHOP

Ignite imaginations and have fun, looking at, talking about and discovering mima's exciting exhibitions. Develop confidence, imagination and learning, through discussion, enquiry and making. Wonder and be curious about artist's work, life and practice in the comfort of the gallery.

CREATIVE WRITING WORKSHOP

Explore the current exhibitions using a range of creative writing techniques and exercises using the magic of words to discuss the things we see, express the thoughts they stir up in us and the way they make us feel. These fun and interactive sessions will spark your group's imagination and creativity and is a great starting point to explore looking, feeling, reflecting, shaping and finding form to tease out the wordsmith in us all...

JEWELLERY GALLERY WORKSHOP

mima's jewellery collection is made up of weird and wonderful pieces from paper and plastic as well as recycled and reclaimed materials, concrete, horsehair and even human teeth! Using a wide range of unusual materials and techniques this practical making workshop will celebrate the use of recycling materials and the importance of crafted objects.

SELF-GUIDED SESSIONS

Are welcome from far and wide. Remember to inform us of your visit.

ART SOUNDSCAPE WORKSHOP

Create, discover and perform a sound story or landscape celebrating a physical response to mima's current exhibitions. By using and organising sounds we can make music to ignite wonder and curiosity. Musical composition and the performance of sounds are at the heart of this adventure and will create the sensation of listening to and experiencing the artwork.

CREATIVE PHILOSOPHICAL ENQUIRY WORKSHOP

A philosophical question is open-ended for communal thinking with a view to increasing understanding and appreciation of the world around you and of each other. This session starts with a series of fun games in the exhibition spaces, making connections between art works followed by big idea thinking using key works as a starting point for creative enquiry and curious thinking.

SPECIAL EDUCATIONAL NEEDS WORKSHOP

Multi-sensory and interactive, on and around key works in the exhibitions. With lots of hands-on activities, creating wonder, exploration and curiosity. Tuesdays & Wednesdays AM or PM workshops 90 minute session suitable for all key stages. £40 per session, minimum group size 5, and maximum group size 15.
