SECONDARY, COLLEGES AND UNIVERSITIES

For bespoke sessions tailored to your subject or interest please give us a call.

Education led workshops are suitable for all key stages and are delivered by enthusiastic Artist Educators. Available Tuesdays, Wednesdays & Fridays, AM or PM. £3 per student half-day; £5 per student full-day workshop. Choose a workshop or mix and match...

GUIDED GALLERY TALKS WORKSHOP

Your students will be introduced to key works, themes and big ideas in the current exhibitions and are encouraged to take part in discussions and debates. Talks cover a wide range of themes or subjects and can be tailored to fit with your current area of study.

SKETCHBOOK SKILLS WORKSHOP

Students will be introduced to a variety of experimental drawing and mark-making techniques to further investigate the current exhibitions using different methods of recording from the perspective of contemporary artists. Students need to bring their own sketchbooks.

DRAWING FROM ART WORKSHOP

Your students will use the current exhibitions to explore the rich and complex structure of an image, which is both simple and mysterious. It's not about producing the perfect final drawing, rather it's to learn something new, explore different techniques and experiment with a variety of materials and have an exciting experience along the way!

SELF-GUIDED SESSIONS

Are welcome from far and wide. Remember to inform us of your visit.

CREATIVE WRITING WORKSHOP

Explore the current exhibitions using a range of creative writing techniques and exercises using words to discuss the things we see, express the thoughts they stir up in us and the way they make us feel. These fun and interactive sessions will spark your student's imagination and creativity...

CREATIVE PHILOSOPHICAL ENQUIRY WORKSHOP

A philosophical question is a question for communal thinking with a view to increasing understanding and appreciation of the world around you and of each other. This session starts with a series of fun games in the exhibition spaces making connections between artworks followed by big idea thinking using key works as a starting point for creative enquiry and curious thinking.

LIFE DRAWING WORKSHOP

Work with artist and tutor Ian Lightfoot to explore the history of life drawing, looking at different techniques and materials in this hands on workshop with a clothed or nude model. This offer is available in mima or we can arrange to come to your school, college or university. £350, 10.30am – 3.00pm includes all materials, tutor and model. Max 25 students. Full days only, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday & Saturday subject to availability.

GCSE ART & DESIGN WORKSHOP

This workshop provides students with a wide range of creative, exciting and stimulating opportunities to explore their interests in ways that are both personally relevant and developmental in nature. It enables students to develop their ability to actively engage in the processes of Art and Design, building creative skills through learning and doing, developing imaginative and intuitive ways of working. Further developing knowledge and understanding of media, materials and technologies in historical and contemporary contexts, societies and cultures. £350, 10.30am – 3.00pm includes all materials and tutor. Max 25 students. Full days only, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday & Saturday subject to availability.
